

EuroStrings announces:

3rd EUROSTRINGS COMPOSITION CONTEST FOR CLASSICAL GUITAR

Encouraging the creation of new repertoire for classical guitar.

PRIZES:

1. 1st prize: 1500 EUR
2. The winning composition will be a compulsory piece performed at the final of the 4th EuroStrings Competition that will be held in Petrer (Spain) 2021. The winning composition will be performed by the winner of the 4th EuroStrings Guitar Competition at the 16 EuroStrings festivals.
3. The winning composition will be published by EuroStrings Editions.

GUIDELINES:

1. Applicants should submit one composition for solo guitar (no more than 7 minutes in duration), composed in one single or several movements.
2. The competition aims to promote emerging composers up to age 35 whose works have not yet had a chance to gain international recognition. Applicants should either be of European nationality or otherwise based and active in EU countries/territory (this also includes European countries which are not a part of the EU, but are geographically considered part of Europe). No published, or previously awarded compositions should be submitted. Works must be composed for the six-stringed classical guitar. The real name of the composer should not appear on any pages of the submitted score.
3. Composers may submit more than one work, registering and paying the fee for each of them separately.
4. An application fee of 100 EUR should be transferred to:
IBAN: HR0824840081102398415
BIC/SWIFT: RZBHR2XXXX
RAIFFEISEN BANK
5. The composition should be sent in .pdf format (A4 sheet music). All scores must be sent anonymously; only a pseudonym can appear on the score pages. The file is to be named: yourpseudonym_EuroStrings.pdf. The following additional materials are to be submitted, along with the score, onto the website application form found here <https://eurostrings.eu/eurostrings-composition-contest-for-classical-guitar/>
 - An audio recording of the composition in mp3 format (or midi) must accompany the score. The file is to be named: yourpseudonym_EuroStrings.mp3
 - A scanned printout of the registration fee payment is to be submitted along with other application materials.
 - A scanned, signed submission form including the declaration of authenticity, a statement as to the fact that the work is as yet unpublished and that it has never been performed professionally.
 - A biography of the composer (max. 1500 character).
 - A portrait photo (min. 1 MB).
6. Alternatively please send all materials to: Music School BONAR (Glazbena škola Bonar) Maršanići 5, Zagreb, Croatia
e-mail address: info@bonar.hr
7. The deadline for submission on the composition is by the end of 10th February 2021. The winner will be announced on 28th February 2021.
8. The jury consists of three internationally known composers and guitarists. The composition competition selection process is based upon three stages:
Eliminatory: the best 12 compositions will be selected out of all applications
Semi-finals: the best 3 compositions will be selected
Finals: the winning composition is selected from the finalists

3rd EUROSTRINGS COMPOSITION CONTEST FOR CLASSICAL GUITAR

NOTE *: All the materials will go to the EuroStrings central office. The score and audio files under the pseudonym will be submitted thereafter to the jury panel. Other files will be kept on file separately, for announcement purposes.

NOTE : All submitted compositions will become part of an online source of guitar music called EuroStrings Online Editions. This will be available to download for all EuroStrings Members. If any of the submitted pieces become part of another published source, removal from EuroStrings Online will be requested on an individual basis.

DECLARATION: The composer hereby certifies that the composition has been written by him/her and belongs to him/her; that it is his exclusive property and that he has not assigned, sold or transferred all or parts of his rights to any agency, person or company. The composer agrees to publish the composition in case of winning a prize.
