Press Release 1/2

The EuroStrings Guitar Competition is open to the EuroStrings Artists – the 17 prizewinners from the 17 guitar festivals, which are EuroStrings Platform members for 2019–2020. Each of these festivals draws competitors from all over the world and, as a result, the EuroStrings Guitar Competition offers the very best of the finest young guitarists from all over the world.

About the EuroStrings Artists

The EuroStrings Artists are a selected group of young professionals, winners of international competitions of the festivals that are members of the EuroStrings Platform. These Artists are awarded a year-long touring programme, focusing on festival visits within Europe, following a carefully curated programme, including the creation of audience development opportunities – the EuroStrings Curriculum.

First Round of the competition will be broadcast on 17 and 18 December 2020

Second Round of the competition will be broadcast on Saturday 19 December 2020

Final Round of the competition will be broadcast on Sunday 20 December 2020

Live on EuroStrings YouTube: www.youtube.com/watch?v=2MPpM2gbv10

EuroStrings is co-funded by the Creative Europe Programme of the European Union. As the first such platform to be established, it is ever expanding: having started with an initial 14 member festivals in 2018, it now has 17 member festivals in 2020. The project is co-funded by the Creative Europe programme of the European Union and is the first guitar project ever to receive such funding. EuroStrings also has partners in America and China, making it a truly global project.
