About the EuroStrings Artists

EuroStrings Artists are a group of young professional guitarists, who are the laureates of the international competitions organised by the 17 EuroStrings Platform member guitar festivals. They are invited to take part in the year-long carefully curated EuroStrings Exchange Programme, which is delivered through the EuroStrings Curriculum.

Born in 1995 in Pécs, Hungary, Dávid Fellegi started studying the guitar at the age of eight. After winning a number of competitions, he studied at the High School of Arts of Pécs with Tamás Straub, where he also showed an interest in composition. In 2014, he commenced his studies at the Franz Liszt Academy of Music with András Csáki and József Eötvös, completing both his Bachelor's degree with honours and his Masters. Dávid's interests cover both classical and jazz music. As a composer, he won First Prize and the 'Special Prize for Best Composition' at the 2019 International Guitar Contest of Szeged. Dávid premiered his own Sonata Fantasy for solo guitar in November 2018; and the Venti Chiavi Guitar Trio premiered his Mixations in October 2016.

Luis Alejandro García, who was born in Tenerife in 1993, has won more than 20 national and international awards. He won First Prize at: the Concurso del XXIII Festival Internacional de Guitarra de Coria, Spain in 2019, 47th Concurso Internacional de Guitarra Fernando Sor in Madrid in 2019 and the 'Miquel Llobet' Certamen Internacional de Guitarra in Barcelona in 2017, among many others. In 2018, he released his first CD, Lazos sobre el Atlántico (JSM Guitar Records). He is a member of Canary Guitar Quartet, who have also released their first recording, called 21. In October 2019, he made his debut as a soloist at the Palau de la Música Catalana in Barcelona and will perform with the National Radio and Television Orchestra of Spain (ORTVE) at the Teatro Monumental, in April 2020. For 2020, he has concert tours in the USA, Mexico, Brazil, Argentina and in Europe.

Cassie Martin started playing the guitar at the age of five. By the age of nine, she started to win prizes in competitions. More recently, she won First Prize at: the International Guitar Competition in Béarn, at the Roland Dyens-Révélation International Competition Classical Guitar Magazine in 2018, and at the International Competition in Carry-le-Rouet. Presently, she divides her time between the Conservatoire National Supérieur de Musique et de Danse in Paris, where she studies with Olivier Chassain, and performing, which is her absolute pleasure, with repertoire ranging from early to contemporary music.

Pablo Menéndez was born in 1992 in Asturias, Spain and started playing guitar at the age of ten. He completed his Bachelor's degree with Marco Socías in San Sebastian, and obtained his Masters 'cum laude' after studying with Carlo Marchione at the Conservatorium Maastricht in the Netherlands. He also studies orchestral conducting. He has won prizes in several international music competitions and has given solo concerts in Spain, Germany, the Netherlands and Italy. He recorded a CD of nineteenth-century Spanish music with tenor Joaquín Pixán and pianist Mario Bernardo. Pablo combines his concert activity with teaching at the Conservatorio Nacional Superior de Música in Córdoba, Spain.

Born in 1990 in Argentina, Agustín Nazzetta, obtained a Bachelor's degree in music from the National Arts University Institute (IUNA) Department of Musical Arts 'Carlos López Buchardo', studying with Javier Bravo. In 2012, he moved to Salzburg to pursue a Masters at the Universität Mozarteum with María Isabel Siewers. He currently studies in Basel, Switzerland with Pablo Márquez. He won First Prize at both the Incontri Chitarristici di Gargnano in Italy and the International Guitar Festival Rust 2019 in Austria. In addition to his career as a soloist, his interest in contemporary music has led him to work with young composers, ensembles and conductors.

About International Guitar Festival Rust and the International Guitar Competition ‘Alirio Diaz’

The International Guitar Festival Rust was founded by Gabriel Guillén in 1999. Since then, the festival has grown into one of the most important guitar festivals in Europe. Initially, the festival was dedicated to international composer, tutor and journalist John W. Duarte, who passed away in 2005. Now, the International Guitar Festival Rust is dedicated to the memory of the virtuoso Venezuelan guitarist Alirio Diaz, who died in 2016. Rust’s International Guitar Competition is judged by a panel of Austrian and international experts. In 2017, a composition competition for the promotion of classical guitar music was held for the first time. It was a great success with more than 40 contributions from composers from all over the world. The Artistic Directors are now Gabriel Guillén and Jovan Pesec with the son of Alirio Diaz, Senio Alirio Diaz, as its Honorary Artistic Director.
