About the EuroStrings Artists

The EuroStrings Artists are a selected group of young professionals, who are winners of international competitions which took place at the various EuroStrings Platform member festivals. These Artists are awarded a year-long touring programme, focusing on festival visits within Europe, following a carefully curated programme, including the creation of audience development opportunities – the EuroStrings Curriculum.

George Dimitrov received high recognition as a young musician in Bulgaria in 2017 winning the Olga Kamburova Award at the Bulgarian Annual Ceremony “Musician of the Year”, of Bulgarian National Radio, and gave his solo concert debut with the Sofia Soloists Chamber Orchestra, conducted by Plamen Djuroff.

Peter Graneis has completed a Masters degree at the Royal Conservatory in The Hague. He performs as part of Yehudi Menuhin’s Live Music Now scheme and recorded his first CD, Portraits in 2017.

Gábor Hart has been working at the Szeged National Theatre since 2016, playing not only classical guitar but also electric guitar and sometimes even banjo. This varied background brings him success at international classical guitar competitions.

Not only is Tomasz Radziszewski an awarding winning guitarist but he also performs as a tenor and has composed chamber music for guitar, string quartets, and an opera to be premièred this year in Wrocław, Poland.

After her initial studies in Poland Katarzyna Smolarek received her Bachelor’s degree from the Mozarteum University in Salzburg, winning prizes in competitions across the globe from Austria to Australia.

Radio Beethoven FM in Chile described Emmanuel Sowicz as “the next star of the guitar” and he is proving that prediction to be accurate with his increasingly prestigious performances as a soloist and with orchestra at London’s Barbican and Kings Place, and Canterbury Festival.

Zuzanna Węzyk was born in Gdańsk in Poland where she started playing guitar at the age of 7. In June 2018, she completed her Bachelor of Arts degree, studying with the Marco Diaz-Tamayo at Mozarteum University Salzburg in Austria. She is currently based in London, where she is working on her Master’s degree in Composing For Film and TV at Kingston University in London.

EuroStrings, which is co-funded by the Creative Europe Programme of the European Union, is proud to be a part of the International Guitar Festival José Tomás – Villa de Petrer 2019 from 6–20 July 2019. EuroStrings is the first global collaborative platform of Classical Guitar Festivals, focusing on fostering European musical excellence. It is an ever-expanding collaboration of 17 European Festival partners with global partners in the USA and Asia. EuroStrings fosters excellence in musicianship, outreach work within the community, the creation of audience development opportunities, networking and, last but not least, world-class education for emerging young guitarists.

About International Guitar Festival José Tomás – Villa de Petrer

Starting out as a "Guitar Week" in 1998, this annual festival in Petrer, on the east coast of Spain, has grown into a 15-day celebration offering courses, concerts, conferences, an international competition, exhibitions, an international Guitar Fair ... and the Orquesta Efímera de Guitarras José Tomás project, where more than 30 young guitarists come together to rehearse and participate in a concert. This July 2019 marks the 22nd edition of the International Guitar Festival José Tomás – Villa de Petrer, and the 18th year of the international guitar competition.
